

TITLE COMPANIES AND REALTORS

A fee will be charged for providing financial closing documentation provided for Real Estate transactions.

Property Owner's Association dues and any assessments will be noted as well as the status of payments for the property in question. Copies of the covenants and restrictions will be made available in order to be given to the purchaser at closing as well

Please note that this documentation will be provided at a cost of $50.00 which will be invoiced to your office upon receiving a request for closing information.